OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS To the Advertiser

In the belief that he has committed other murders than that of Anna Ammiller, the girl whose torso was found in the Hudson river, the police today planned to put Hans Schmidt, the clergyman who confessed to slaying the girl, through an examination tending to force him to reveal every act of his shrouded past.

That Schmidt was a counterfeiter as well as a murderer came to light today through the arrest shortly after midnight of Ernest Arthur Muret, a bogus dentist, and Bertha Zech, his girl assistant. Muret under merciless grilling by the police not only admitted that he knew both Schmidt and the murdered girl but also confessed that Schmidt had been a partner of his in a counterfeiting scheme.

Arrignment of D. A. Muret, arrested in connection with alleged counterfeiting activity on the part of Hans Schmidt, murderer of Anna Ammiller, was held today. Muret waived preliminary hearing.

After the arrest of Muret, Schmidt in his cell made a statement to Father Evers of the Tomb prison. He said that God told him to become a counterfeiter so that he might aid the poor. Half the money he said was to have been given the poor in the United States and half in Germany.

Representative William Kent, of California, independent in politics and personality, has heard from the recent reception he gave in honor of Francis Burton Harrison before he retired from the House to become governor-general of the Philippines in a peculiar manner.

A newspaper correspondent who "writes pieces" for a paper which is at feud with Mr. Kent, telegraphed a statement to the effect that Mr. Kent gave a party and passed a hat to pay for it.

As this was about as far from the truth as the east is from the west, Representative Kent is today wearing a grouchy look when he thinks of that brilliant piece of misstatement, and also backs off and protests whenever any one who attended the reception looks as if he were about to contribute a dollar or so.

The only "contribution" of any sort in relation to Mr. Harrison's leaving the House was a small assessment made on members of the House, for the purpose of making a present to the retiring member.

Representative Kent, of California, introduced a resolution providing a plan for the ultimate creation of a government monopoly for the manufacture and control of explosives. The resolution makes the suggestion that it would be well to consult foreign nations regarding suitable action to be taken by the nations of the world toward controlling the manufacture and distribution of explosives and other munitions of war.

The resolution recites that an international trust to manufacture explosives is in existence, and that prices charged by the American trust for explosives, used by the army and navy are extortionate and unreasonable.

Provisional President Huerta published a message today convening congress for September 27.

The message deals at considerable length with the troubled conditions of Mexico, but is full of optimism for the future. It urges all patriotic citizens of Mexico to bring to an end the conditions that have existed in the country and begin the task of building over again the devastated republic.

Huerta promises that he will spare no efforts to bring about an unrestricted election both for president and vice-president, and expresses hope for an early solution of the differences now existing with the United States.

Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, mother of Harry Thaw, notified the Eagle hotel, at Concord, N. H., today that she will arrive tomorrow. She is coming to attend the hearing before Governor Felker and to protest against her son being sent back to New York. The hearing has been postponed until next Tuesday.

The house committee on banking and currency by a vote of 12 to 10 today adopted an amendment to the Glass bill, permitting members of banks to rediscunt as much paper as they care to at the federal reserve banks provided they have the approval of the directors of the latter banks.

Interest of the veterans at Chattanooga, Tenn., attending the forty-seventh annual reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic today centered in the contest for commander in chief of the organization. Several names have been prominently mentioned for the office now held by General Alfred B. Bera. Among them are Private Orlando Sommers of Kokomo, Indiana; Col. Claire E. Adams of Nebraska; Former Congressman Washington Gardner of Kalamazoo, Michigan; and General J. N. Harrison of Kansas.

Senator H. F. Broyles and E. F. Hendricks, a lumberman of Selma, Tennessee, killed each other today in a fight near the Greenwood Springs hotel, Aberdeen, Wash.

The trouble was the result of a quarrel of years' standing when Senator Broyles sold timber holdings to Hendricks and his son. The men met and after a few words Hendricks drew a revolver and fired. As the bullet struck Senator Broyles in the heart he buried an axe in the head of his assailant.

"I believe that this injustice should be remedied before final action, and that instead of putting sugar and wool upon the free list, a moderate revenue duty should be imposed, which will give the country needed revenue, and at the same time save legitimate industries from injury or destruction.

Two States, Oklahoma and North Dakota, dedicated their exposition sites in San Francisco today.

Judge J. J. Dunne and Miss Gail J. Sipes represented the former state and P. J. McElroy and E. Geland, the latter.

These commissioners raised the flags of their respective states, and received the deeds to the locations on which Oklahoma and North Dakota will erect buildings.

George H. Dixby, the Long Beach, Cal., millowner, who was indicted some months ago on charges resulting from a morality crusade, was placed on trial today in the superior court before Judge Benj. F. Flood of San Bernardino county. The principal witnesses were Marie Brovy Levy, Cleo Helen Barker and other minor girls whose testimony before the judge involved alleged instances of degeneracy.

A jury this afternoon brought in a verdict of not guilty in the cases of Mary Diggs and S. Harris, charged jointly with perjury in connection with testimony given in connection with federal trials.

It was said at the office of the women's social and political union in London today that Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst would try to meet President Wilson personally in the United States.

P. C. Davis, the aviator, of Chicago, died today of tetanus as a result of an accident sustained while making exhibition flights.

SEADOGS SCARCE; WINDJAMMERS WAITING

"A life on the ocean wave" may still be all that it was advertised to be some days ago, but it isn't as easy to convince landlubbers of it any more, and seagoing men who have windjammer experience aren't easy to get. Difficulty is being experienced by Capt. Watts, of the American windjammer, William F. Babcock, which has completed a load of 1,600,000 feet of lumber at a Sound port.

He was trying to ship a crew, but Capt. Watts is more particular than the skipper of the Russian windjammer, Eudymion, which, in the parlance of the briny, "hipped a bunch of stiffs." "Stiffs," he it known, is what the sailors call landlubbers who ship.

Capt. Watts doesn't want a mixed crew of indifferent experience, but a British-American crew with sea knowledge, and he says "if he cannot get a complete crew here he will try at Victoria and Port Townsend, no matter how long he has to wait. On the last voyage to southern waters, Capt. Watts had a hard time with a crew he had gathered, and a near-mutiny in which he was handled roughly.

When the Babcock leaves the coast there will be many who will wonder if she will ever be seen again. She is thirty years old, but her hull is said to be just as staunch as ever thirty years ago they built hulls that were made to last. It is a long time for wood to hang together and still serve its purpose as well as when the ship was new.

Numerous have been the predictions about certain disappearance from the sea of all windjammers, but the great winged vessels still continue to find a demand for their carrying capacity and still sail the deep for all the dirges sung for them.

And more recently, in fact but a few months ago, when the famous old Glory of the Sea was stripped of her fine white clothing and made over into a storage boat and sent to Alaska, there still were heard predictions that "there's gone another and the rest will go soon."

WHAT'S INDIGESTION? WHO CARES? LISTEN!

REDUCTIONS IN TARIFF BILL AS PASSED SENATE

The senate's additions to the house free list with 1912 as a basis will cost the government more than $44,000,000, but, by adding a tax of 1-10th of 1 cent a pound on cotton sold for future delivery, a tax of 1-10th of 1 cent a pound on bananas; restoring a cent a pound on bananas; restoring the requirement of a full internal revenue tax of $1.10 a gallon on brandies used to fortify wines, and by increasing the surtax rate on large incomes, senate leaders believe they have provided an actual increase. That is a point disputed by Majority Leader Underwood of the house.

The senate made these other important changes: Lowered the normal exemption from the 1 per cent income tax from $4000 to $3000 for single persons, with exemptions for wives and dependent children.

Exempted the incomes of mutual life insurance companies, which revert to the benefit of the stockholders.

Increased the graduated surtax on large incomes to a minimum of 6 per cent on those of more than $500,000.

Exempted incomes of municipalities derived from operation of public utilities, and changed the date from which the tax shall be computed for the first year from January 1 to March 1, 1913.

Free listed cattle and other live stock, wheat, hair of Angora goat and some other agricultural products.

Restored oatmeal and rolled oats to the dutiable list, and provided an elaborate inspection of meat imports.

Reduced house rates on woolen manufactures to become effective January 1, 1914.

Provided, in the sugar schedule, for immediate abolition of the Dutch standard test; postponed operation of proposed reduced rates until March 1, 1914, leaving the provision unchanged for free sugar in May, 1915.

Slightly increased rates on finer cotton goods, reclassifying the whole cotton schedule, and changing the silk schedule from an ad valorem to a specific basis.

Provided for an administrative force to handle income tax collections with-out regard to requirements of the civil service.

Struck out a countervailing duty on wood pulp.

Greatly reduced rates of the metal schedule.

Struck out many reform provisions in the administrative section.

Rejected the 5 per cent tariff reduction on imports in American vessels and the requirement for inspection of books of foreign manufactures in undervaluation cases, but added a provision giving the president authority to retaliate against nations which discriminate against American goods by proclaiming increased rates on certain goods.

Adopted a provision excluding goods manufactured chiefly by child labor.

Provided for the creation of a commission to revise the customs laws.

Important additions to the free list included:

Antimony ore, limestone rock, asphalt, asphaltum and bitumen; fabrics of jute yarns; wool blankets valued at less than 40 cents a pound; textbooks, sugar machinery, castiron pipe, surgical catgut, cement, creosote oil, denatured alcohol, flax and hemp, fur and fur skins, gunpowder, pig iron, spiegleisen, ferro-manganese, wrought iron slabs and blooms, photographic moving picture films, steel ingots, blooms and slabs, cattle and other live stock, wheat, angora goat and alpaca wool and paper twine for binding wool.

CREAMERY MAY BE LOCATED IN HILO

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILO, Sept. 15.—Stockholders of the Glenwood creamery, of the Olaa district and Hilo, met in conference here yesterday to discuss the proposition of moving the creamery site from Glenwood to Hilo. Before the meeting was concluded they had decided to do so and later purchased an eight year leasehold of a plot of ground mauka of the jail and just below the reservoir on the south side of the Kaunama road.

The leasehold was held by T. A. Dranga and the stockholders intend to take steps at once to acquire the land, it being government property. The stockholders also voted to expend $8000 for the construction of a building to house the creamery machinery, and the work on the building is to begin at once, it being the intention to have the plant running in the Hilo location by January 1, 1914.

The principal reason for making the change is to put the creamery in a more central location and nearer a market and shipping facilities. The location of the creamery here is looked upon as a movement of much value for the small farmer who will have a convenient place at which to market his dairy products.
